ALL GO FOR OCEAN PARK

It's all go for the first season sire Ocean Park this weekend, with three exciting offspring aiming for glory across Australia and Singapore.

The Cox Plate winning sire's chances comprise Raheeb, Ocean Jewel and Rip Girl.

Of the three, perhaps Raheeb (pictured above) is the most intriguing. The striking chestnut colt has yet to greet the starter but makes his debut for Singapore trainer Saimee Jumaat in the Sgp-2 Aushorse Golden Horseshoe over 1400m later tonight (1:20 am NZ time).

Raheeb has had two trials in Singapore for two wins.

Recommending this trial winning form is Ocean Jewel (pictured below), who likewise had two trial ticks to her name before dishing out a very impressive debut win for trainer Simon Miller at Belmont Park on June 28th.

Ocean Jewel is aiming to repeat the dose at her second start on Saturday in the Freshman Sires 2YO Plate (1400m) at Belmont Park.

In contrast to these two, Rip Girl (seen left as a foal) hasn't officially trialed yet. She makes her debut for Matt Ellerson & Simon Zahra at Pakenham over 1400m on Sunday.
